

PN01

Public Notice Ngalang Nation Tribal Members

Tuesday 21st May 2024

The Ngalang Tribal People release this notice to maintain the honour and integrity of the Ngalang Tribe.

The Ngalang Tribal People being concerned that Australian citizens and or officers of the Commonwealth of Australia, and or the State of Western Australia and or, Western Australia Government have been granted the ability to make laws and or enforcing laws on the Ngalang Tribal People now release this Public Notice.

The Ngalang Tribal People now make known to the world that:

1. The Ngalang Tribal Emblem is used to identify Ngalang Tribal Authority.
2. The Ngalang Tribal Emblem may only be used with the written consent of the Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders.
3. The Ngalang Tribal People live pursuant to Ngalang Tribal Law.
4. The Ngalang Tribal People DO NOT live pursuant to any other law, including but not limited to Commonwealth of Australia, State of Western Australia and or Western Australia.
5. The Ngalang Tribal People ARE NOT Australian citizens or Western Australia citizens.
6. The Ngalang Tribal People ARE NOT constitutionally recognised within the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901.
7. The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1901 DOES NOT vest in the Parliament of Australia any authority to make laws for the Ngalang Tribal People.
8. The Western Australia Constitution Act 1889, DOES NOT vest in the Western Australia Parliament, and or Western Australia Government any authority to make laws for, and or on behalf of the Ngalang Tribal People.
9. The arrest, and or detention, and or interference of a Ngalang Tribal Member by any Australian citizen, Western Australia citizen and or officer of the Commonwealth of Australia, and or Western Australia, WILL invoke the Ngalang Tribal jurisdiction.

10. Any Australian citizen, and or Western Australia citizen, and or officer of the Commonwealth of Australia, Western Australia, invoking Ngalang Tribal jurisdiction GIVES MUTUAL ASSENT, AND OR VOLUNTARILY CONSENTS TO Ngalang Tribal Law, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of Ngalang Tribal Courts and or Tribunals pursuant to Ngalang Tribal Law.

Unlawful use, possession and or desecration of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem or any part of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem is prohibited and constitutes an offence pursuant to Ngalang Tribal Law.

Use means but is not limited to adverse use; the use without license or permission.

Possession means but is not limited to receiving or obtaining possession of the thing, having control over the disposition of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem (whether or not the Ngalang Tribal Emblem is in the custody of the person), and or having joint possession of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem.

Desecration means but is not limited to where a reasonable person would infer that the destruction or mutilation is intended publicly to express contempt or disrespect for the Ngalang Tribal Emblem, the Ngalang Tribal People, and or the Ngalang Tribe.

Part means but is not limited to any component of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem; these are individual components, Ngalang Tribal lore shield, Ngalang sacred flora and fauna and Ngalang banner or any combination of the aforementioned components.

Any man, woman, child, and or person in use of, and or possession of, and or desecrating Ngalang Tribal Emblems and or components of the Ngalang Tribal Emblem, gives mutual assent, and or voluntarily consents to Ngalang Tribal Law, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of Ngalang Tribal Courts and or Tribunals pursuant to Ngalang Tribal Law and or any other jurisdiction the Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders sees fit.

Any man, woman, or child claiming to be a Ngalang tribal member will invoke Ngalang Tribal Law, gives mutual assent, and or voluntarily consents to Ngalang Tribal Law, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of Ngalang Tribal Courts and or Tribunals pursuant to Ngalang Tribal Law and or any other jurisdiction the Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders sees it.

You have been noticed.

By order: Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders

Shane Garlett

