Public Notice Ngalang Nation Flag

Tuesday 21st May 2024

The Ngalang Government under the authority of the Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders make known to the whole world that the Ngalang Government has authorised the use of the Ngalang Flag for use in official duties and occasions within Ngalang country pursuant to Ngalang Government Law.

The Ngalang Government now make known to the world that the Ngalang flag:

1. Is now an authorised flag for official use within Ngalang country.
2. Can be flown on its own within Ngalang country.
3. Can be flown in conjunction with the official Ngalang Government flag pursuant to the conditions detailed within 'Flying the Flag' handbook.
4. Is for the public use within Ngalang country to designate property of the Ngalang Government located within or emanating from Ngalang country.
5. Consists of seven colours; orange, ochre, black, white, light blue, green and yellow.

Unlawful use, possession and or desecration of the Ngalang flag or any part of the Ngalang flag are prohibited and constitute an offence pursuant to Ngalang Government Law and or Ngalang Tribal Law.

Use means but is not limited to adverse use; the use without license or permission.

Possession means but is not limited to receiving or obtaining possession of the thing, having control over the disposition of the Ngalang flag (whether or not the Ngalang flag is in the custody of the person), and or having joint possession of the Ngalang flag.

Desecration means but is not limited to where a reasonable person would infer that the destruction or mutilation is intended publicly to express contempt or disrespect for the Ngalang flag, the Sovereign Ngalang Government, the Ngalang Tribal People, and or the Ngalang Tribe.

Part means but is not limited to any component of the Ngalang flag.

Any man, woman, child, and or person in use of, and or possession of, and or desecrating Ngalang flag and or components of the Ngalang flag, gives mutual assent, and or voluntarily consents to Ngalang Tribal law, and to be tried within the jurisdiction of Ngalang Tribal Courts and or Tribunals pursuant to Ngalang Tribal of Council of Elders sees fit.

You have been noticed.

By order: Ngalang Tribal Council of Elders
